

The Times Record
Thursday Dec. 2, 1937
Spencer, West Virginia

BAND TO GIVE FIRST CONCERT OF SEASON

The Spencer high school band, directed by Karl V. Brown, will present the first concert of the winter season in the high school gymnasium on Thursday, Dec. 9. There will be a matinee and evening performance.

The program which has been announced will include:

“King Cotton,” march by Sousa

“Childhood Fantasy” by Lillya

“The Band That Jack Built,” novelty number, Hayward

“Second Norwegian Rhapsody,” Christiansen

“Drum Major.” A march written by Ellis

“Cherrio,” a march by Goldman

: Grasshopper Dance,” written by Bucabassl. This is to be a piano solo with band accompaniment played by Stuart H. Armstrong.

There will be a small admission charge for both the afternoon and evening concerts.